Subject: buying bulk canning jar lids

Date: Thu, 13 Apr 2008

Subject: Home canning resource

From: Farr Cathryn

To: Wauna Food Co-op Members

It is almost that time of year again, when we provident living-type people start thinking about canning all the wonderful bounty of summer and fall.

I have been contacted by just one of those forward-thinkers, Mary James, of the Ollala ward and she has found a resource for buying bulk canning jar lids. (not the rings) She would like to make a group purchase and take advantage of the better pricing.

If you are interested, contact her ASAP at: theotherjamesgang@juno.com

Prices are: $40.00 for a case of 24 dozen wide mouth lids

$35.00 for a case of 28.75 dozen narrow mouth lids

If many people are interested, there may be a slight cut in the cost of shipping.

She will be ordering whole cases, so if you would like to share a case with someone, you can organize that on your own.

The prices compare like this: $1.95/doz Walmart vs. $1.60/doz bulk wide
 $1.29/doz Walmart vs. $1.15/doz bulk narrow

Please spread the word with your friends and family and ward family.

Thank you.
